SPECIAL CASH PRICES

From now on will prevail in high-grade bleycles, as our fixing the price of 1896 "RAMBLERS" is bound to bring competitors to that figure, or below it. Until further notice RAMBLERS, late '96 patterns, either in black or colored enamels, will be sold at EIGHTY-FIVE DOLLARS, CASH. will be sold at EIGHTY-FIVE DOLLARS, CASH. When sold on installments a slight advance will be made on above price. Buying RAMBLERS at this new price is like picking up money, and the rider that has not yet made selection of a new mount will do well to inspect our line. We also sell the best $75 wheel in this city, and only ask $55 for it. Both men's and women's patterns in stock, and prompt delivery can be made. Remember, the new wheels we sell have the guarantee of 17 years' experience of wheel-building back of them, and a reputation for good work that counts for something.

Yale's Prospects Generally Thought to Be Good.

GOOD FEELING FOR THE AMERICANS

Their Shell Believed to Be Too Heavy.

DR. M'DOWELL'S CHANCES

(Copyright, 1896, by the Associated Press.) their finishing touches.

The consensus of opinion is that the race for the Grand will be won by Leander, New College or Yale, with the Thames crew having a good lead for fourth place in the estimation of competent critics. Trinity College and the London Rowing Club are considered out of the race. The latter because they are far behind their form of other years, and the former because, for some reason unexplained, they have fallen off remarkably from their performance of

There are several factors, however, which should not be overlooked in forecasting the chances of the different crews. The New College men are, unquestionably, some-what overtrained. "Bob" Cook has carefully avoided this, and Yale will go to the post in prime condition, a most important factor with the crews as evenly matched as the present seem to be. The draw—if there is a strong west wind, such as has been blowing every day this week off the Bucks station-means an advantage of at least a length and a half. There is an undercurrent of feeling here, fed by the press, that if Yale wins it will be because Mr. Cook cepled the English style of rowing with a really good crew, and that if Yale loses it will be because they had not time to thoroughly adopt the English style.

"Cornell," said Mr. J. F. Cooper, secretary of the regatta committee, "pursued a suspicious policy before unknown to Heniey suspected they would be poisoned. Yale, on the contrary, seems one of us and has met in manners and men and they are not look-ing for traps and fricks on every side. If they win it will be a great thing for Hen-ley, as we suppose Harvard will not be content and perhaps other colleges will not be satisfied until they add a victory at Henley to their home triumphs. But, even If Yale succumbs, we trust it will not be long before we see her blue 'Y' again, and if Yale wins you may be sure there will be no begrudging her the victory even among the defeated crews."
"This is the keynote of the feeling at ander, Trinity Hall and New College men, no less than among the watermen and the towpath loafers.

The Yale men are a lot better together than any of our crews, and I cannot un-derstand why they do not cover more water. After watching them carefully, I have reached the conclusion that the fault lies with their paper boat. It is not as rigid as our cedar boats, and if Yale is defeated I believe it will be because, while the paper boat is better than any American-built cedar boats. dar boat, it is not equal to the English ce-charge of the tent boat houses.

"You see," said one of the watermen, "Yale's boat is heavier than first Trinity's uel's boat, "and with more weight it is not so rigid, which must tell upon its way be-tween strokes."

Wauchop, stroke of the Trinity Hall crew, is of the same opinion as Mr. Cooper the crew.

the men nervous is shared by C. M. Pit-man of New College, by the Leander men "Bob" Cook will express no opinion as to the chances of the Yale crew, and the men maintain the same attitude of reserve. But they all seem to be quietly confident.

Dr. McDowell's Prospects. The absorbing interest in the race for the grand challenge cup obscurea almost completely the coming race for the diamond sculls. Dr. McDowell, the American champion oarsman, who is entered for this event, seems to feel this somewhat. He says that apart from the friendly reception he has met with among the oarsmen, his boat house has received no courtesies whatever. The doctor added:

"I am in excellent condition, and hope to surprise some of them. But I am convinced that they will go to the man who gets the Bucks station. Then, I am not properly equipped for the Herley waters. Mind, I possible is what is wanted here. Black-staff's boat only weighs twenty-six pounds, and Harding's only weighs eighteen and one-half pounds. However, no matter what I do this year, I shall have a much lighter boat and come next year."

The morning was stormy, and it turned out to be a nasty day for rowing. The wind was down the river, and the water choppy.

New Boat Not Yet Rigged

"Bob" Cook, however, had the Yale men down to the boat house at 9:30, in order that they might help to rig the new shell and so that they might to get a better idea of catching the water, by watching the practice of the English crews. They were occupied until noon, at which hour the shell was still not ready for use. Consequently, the old shell was floated, and, with "Bob" Cook coaching the men from a bicycle, Yale pulled some short stretches with the stroke varying from 36 to 40. The men,however,showed bad form,and Mr.Cook tried to impress upon them the necessity of

THE WEATHER FORECASTS BY FLAG SIGNALS.

Explanation of the Flags.

The flags are holsted each day upon the issue of the morning weather, map and float until dark. They indicate the weather that may be expected during the following thirty-six hours, but more parficularly the last twenty-four hours of that period. They are to be read from the top of the staff downward. If more than one kind of weather is predicted for the period from 8 p.m. to 8 p.m. the conditions first samed in the forecast will be represented by the upperment fing. When a warning of a "cold wave" is included in the forecast message, the cold-wave flag will be displayed below the proper weather flag.

The temperature flag, when placed above numbers 1, 2-or 8, indicates washer weather; when placed below numbers 1, 2 or 3, indicates colder weather; when not displayed, the indications are that the temperature will remain stationary.

McCammon, first vice president; S. W. Woodward, second vice president; Mrs. Phoebe A. Hearst, third vice president; W. A. De Caindry, treasurer, and Miss Jose-phine A. Clark, secretary. Judge Rufus H. Thayer was appointed chairman of the library committee, and Gen. J. K. McCammon, chairman of the committee on ways and means. Resolutions were unanimously adopted, recognizing the services of Justice A. B. Hagner, retiring trustee. Gen. Greely submitted his annual report, stat-ing the facts connected with the growth of the library and presenting an interesting showing of its development in the accompanying table:

LINCOLN POST INDIGNANT.

Wednesday evening the members of Lincoln Post, G. A. R., at their regular meet ing, adopted resolutions relative to the Davis celebration at Richmond and the attendance there of some of the High School Cadets, expressing strongly their condemnation of such occasions. The resolutions de clared that Lincoln Post, Grand Army c the Republic, the largest organization of the kind in the nation's capital, with its loyal representatives from every state which furnished defenders of the flag in and a pairiot whom the ages will delight to honor, in full sossion does solemnly take the following action:

1. It deplores and denounces the effort at Richmond to exalt and dignify the memory of the arch-traitor, Jefferson Davis, and the transon which he represented the high-traitor, Jefferson Davis, and the treason which he represented, as an unworked attack upon the liberties of our nation, and the placing of a premium upon d'sloyalty rather than upon patriotic devotion to the country and flag of our fathers.

2. It deplores and denounces the movement as designed to corrupt the youth of the land and lead them to believe that the road to preferment may be safely reached by endeavoring to betray and destroy the government, by which they have been fosgovernment, by which they have been fosment as a deliberate insult to the empty sleeve, the torn breast, the poisoned flesh the shattered constitution of every surviv-ing boy in blue; to every victim of horrors any organization or individuals enjoying the favor and protection of the govern-ment which the great arch-traitor betrayand dendeavored to destroy; it deplores and denounces especially such action by certain High School Cauets and a drum corps from the city of Washington, and it regrets exceedingly to know that certain self-appointed delegates from, but misrepresentatives, of certain patriotic organization resentatives, of certain patriotic organiza-tions should so far forget their former po-sition among comrades and in high official circles as to give counterance to projects condemned by the loyal sentiment of the nation.

5. It Ceplores and denounces the condi-patriotism upon its membership.

6. It deplores and denounces the spirit being fortered in certain localities of so expunging and perverting the true history of the war of the rebellion as shall make no distinction between the defenders and destroyers of the government—the Union Sudder and soldier and the tebel-the star spangled banner and the stars and bars—the patriot based upon a paramount respect for and fidelity to the rational Constitution and laws; to discountenance whatever tends to weaken loyalty, lacites to insurrection, treason or rebellion or in any manner impairs the efficience or thermanency of our free institutions, and to excourage the spread of universal liberty, equal rights and justice to all men.

Outside Bleachers.

An effort is being made to put an end to the outside opposition to the "bleachers" in the base ball grounds, and Prosecuting Attorney Pugh has filed charges against the owners of two of the outside grand stands. These owners are Thomas A. Myers of 420 Elm street and George W. Grice of 418 Wilson street. They charge ten cents for the privilege of witnessing the games from their housetops, and Inspector Donovan charges them with giving unlicensed entertainments. The authorities consider the practice of putting so many men on the houses a dangerous one the building regulations will be filed. In the cases involving charges of unlicensed entertainments the trials will take place

GOLD BOLT

The New York Delegation Will Not Be In It.

TELLER'S ADVICE TO SILVER MEN

The Administration to Be Probably Ignored at Chicago.

PLAN OF TILLMAN'S FRIENDS

Discussion as to the probability of a gold bolt at Chicago invariably leads to talk as to what the position of the New York delegation will be should there be a bolt by their friends. It has come to be pretty generally felt that the majority of the New York men will stay with the party, no matter what the remainder of the delegation or others may do. No amount of persuasion, it is believed, could induce many of them to get out of the organization. This is regarded as especially applicable to the Tammany Hall men and to Senator Hill. The attitude of the Tammany Hall men will be worth watching in the national convention. It is said, and is now acknowledged by many New York papers, that there is far more silver sentiment in New York city than the public has supposed. It is claimed that 60 per cent of the rank and file of Tammany is for the white metal, and that every gathering of the braves recently shows an increase in the sentiment. It is jokingly said that many of these Tammany silverites do not know what 16 to 1 means, but they are for that ratio all the same "Silver Dollar" Smith is charged with saying that it means sixteen beers in the future to only one now This kind of a platform, it will calculated to gain strength in New York. At any rate, it is generally felt that Tam-many is too close to the sentiments of the remainder of the silver men throughout the country to jump the track. The Tam-many leaders would be afraid to bolt for fear the main body would not follow them. This would depose many of them and might result in new leaders. Congressmen Amos Cummings. Billy Sulzer and other Tammany statesmen declared their intention of sticking to the party, silver or no silver, before Congress adjourned. Other Tammany leaders so expressed themselves. They have reiterated their determination since then. Amos Cummings is on record as saying that his district is full of "16 to The threatened bolt of the Massachusetts gold men has been partially blocked in a unique way. George Fred. Williams, one unique way. George Fred. Williams, one of the delegates-at-large from that state, has come out in an interview in favor of silver. He says he sees that there is a revolution on for the white metal, and that he proposes to go along with it. He does not believe that it can be checked, and he does not propose to try. Defections in other states are hinted at.

The general belief is that the men who do not intend to support the democratic ticket.

not intend to support the democratic ticket will make no scene in the convention. They will go to their homes and publicly state that they will support McKinley or frain from voting at all. That is the way the silver ticket will lose support from gold men.

Senator Teller's Advice.

The interview yesterday with Senator Teller, in which he advises all silver men of all parties to vote for the democratic nominees, is no surprise here. The Star has mentioned frequently the report that Senator Teller said that he would support the democratic nominee. His statement that Bland or Boies would be nominated, in connection with the advice he gives, shows, it is thought, that he is willing to support either of these men. Senator Teller's ac-tion is likely to throw cold water on the repulist project to nominate him at their convention. He will no doubt refuse the nomination and advise the silver men of the country to support the democratic nominees. This is what the silver democrats want, and they will probably be glad to see the populists nominate him.

As to the Administration. Great interest is felt in Washington as to what will be the course of the Chicago convention toward the administration. The general belief, and what will probably be the case, is that the platform will contain no reference to the administration of President Cleveland, unless it is as to his policy in the Venezuelan matter. That may be commended, but outside of that the administration may not be mentioned in any way. The chances are more on the side of the President being secred by the convention than of being indorsed by it. The expression of opinion of the silver leaders, who were here all along until Congress additional way that the administration journed, was that the administration would be completely ignored. In fact, they asserted that the democrats could not afford to commend the President. It would excite the resentment of the radical silver men all over the country and would lose the party votes. Such men as Tillman and Altgeld will probably insist on strong resolutions condemning President Cleveland, particularly as to the bond issues and his alleged interference with state's rights. On the last question Tillman and Altgeld have always stood together. One has always approved the course of the other.

Candidates at Chicago. Of the presidential candidates before the convention at Chicago only three will be present and participate in the proceedings of the convention. These are Senators Tillman and Blackburn and John R. McLean. Each heads the delegation from his respective state. Each is thought to be sericusly an aspirant for the honor. Nothing would please Senator Tillman more than to get the nomination. His friends have claimed for him for months, often in his presence, that he could carry thousands more votes in November than any other candidate. It is not known what are the plans of the Blackburn and McLean leaders, ut when Gov. Evans of South Carolina was here a few weeks ago he intimated to friends that the plan of the Tillman leaders would be to divide the silver forces as much as possible, delay the nomination as long as they can and then rush matters for their favorite. It is claimed that Tillman has many promises of support in case there is a hitch of this kind, and he has been playing for just that kind of a thing.

PENSION DECISIONS. New Points in the Adjudication of Claims Established. Many new points in the adjudication of pension claims are established in decisions rendered by Assistant Secretary Reynolds of the Interior Department. All the cases came up on appeal from the pension bureau. Following is a summary of new rulings:

The widow of an additional paymaster is pensionable under section 3, act of June 27, 1890, Where snown that a soldier was sound at enlistment, and died in regimental hospital of disease, the exact character and nature of the disease not being shown, the testimony being conflicting, it will be pre-sumed, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, that he died of disease contracted n the service and line of duty.

Death resulting from the morphine habit.

though contracted by using the drug to relieve pain caused by a malady contracted in the service and line of duty, on soldiers' own responsibility, cannot be accepted as due to service in the line of duty. Where a pension granted to a widow on account of a minor child of her deceased husband has been terminated because the husband has been terminated because the child had attained its sixteenth year, and the child has been continuously, since its sixteenth year, Insane, idiotic or otherwise permanently helpless, pension may be allowed it subject to the right as minors of other children of the deceased father to participate in such pension during their other children of the deceased father to participate in such pension during their minority, after the termination of the widow's right to pension from the date of filing application therefor, subsequent to June 27, 1890, upon proof of its trouble. Provision is made to prevent loss of pension by mistakes in applications. It is held, under the famous "June 27" act, that the pension must commence from the date of the filing of the original application, provided pensionable disability is proved. In vided pensionable disability is proved. In the case of C. B. Guchess, a Michigan vet-eran, Judge Reynolds says, in sustaining eran, Judge Reynolds says, in sustaining the right of a pensioner under the June 27 act, to receive a pension under the general law, the former providing sufficient guard against double payment:

"Wherever the act of June 27, 1800, is employed it must be to the soldiers' benefit. And since that benefit is liable to suffer defect the output the use of section 4717. feat through the use of section 4715, Revised Statutes, to compel an election by the pensioner, such section being plainly repugnant to the act designed to convey benefit to the pensioner, cannot be employed."
